

"MEDICS IN OUR MIDST" - CPR/AED TRAINING SESSION ON JULY 9

A reminder for those who have signed up with Bill Bond to learn about use of our AED machine and receive CPR instruction, that the second group will have their training session on Sunday morning, July 9, following the 9:00 service. Thanks to all those who are learning and training to assist should a medical need arise while at church. The first group received training on June 11. Bill is hoping to have a third group in the fall, keep an eye out for new dates!

WORSHIP THEMES FOR JULY

July 2: Acts 7:55-60 Genesis 22:1-14 Matthew 10:40-42

5th Sunday after Pentecost and Communion

Our Communion worship welcomes all to receive the sacrament in the beauty of our sanctuary. We are called to serve and welcome one another into communities where God is the host, all of us are guests, and no one remains a stranger.

July 9: Genesis 24:34-38, 42-49, 58-67 Matthew 11:16-19, 25-30

6th Sunday after Pentecost, Don Niederfrank

We are excited to welcome Rev. Don Niederfrank to lead worship over the next several Sundays. Worship themes are around the rich story about Rebekah's faith and her choice to participate in God's covenant, we are encouraged to turn to God's wisdom for every decision and find rest and compassion.

July 16: Genesis 25:19-34 Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23

7th Sunday after Pentecost, Don Niederfrank

In a story of rival twins, we examine the things that divide us, and through the words of a psalmist and a parable about seeds we ponder the path toward and the opportunities for growth.

July 23: Genesis 28:10-19a Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

8th Sunday after Pentecost, Don Niederfrank

Through Jacob's divine encounter and a parable about a harvest of promise, we enter a place of blessing assured of a God who is ever-present, all-knowing, and all revealing.

July 30: Genesis 29:15-28 and Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

9th Sunday after Pentecost

As we watch and wonder as the tables turn and Jacob becomes the victim of trickery and listen and imagine as Jesus offers metaphors to describe the realm of God, we are inspired to remain open to God's work of transformation in our midst.
